Forever d'Oro Retires To Hidden Springs Farm

Forever d'Oro, a half-brother to 2017 Eclipse Award winner Forever Unbridled and Grade 1 winner Unbridled Forever, will enter stud in 2019 at Hidden Springs Farm, near Palmyra, Indiana. He will stand as the property of his breeder, Charles Fipke, for a fee of $2,000, live foal guaranteed.

Stakes-placed at Saratoga following a Belmont Park maiden special-weight win at 3, the five-year-old is a son of Kentucky Oaks winner and 2017 Broodmare of the Year Lemons Forever, by Lemon Drop Kid. His sire, Medaglia d'Oro, is one of North America's leading sires and himself a son of sire of sires El Prado (IRE), from the dominant Sadler's Wells/Northern Dancer sire line.
